hi, Joe. i increased the font on my slides and i have an alternate version here with bigger fonts (and more slides, though it's essentially the same content, except i dropped one thing that i'll just say orally) in case you want to use this BIGGER version instead. jj

That should be fine...right Joe? Jennifer didn't get comments from me until late yesterday so she needs more time.

Hi,

Here are two presentation (BaP and tert-butanol) that include edits from branch chiefs, Lynn, and Gina from last week, and my comments from this week. For those of you still working on your revisions, please share the latest draft with Joe in the next few minutes in preparation for this afternoon's meeting. It's ok if the presentation is not final, we just need something to walk through during the dress rehearsal.

Thanks,
Samantha
